MILTON MAN ARRAIGNED ON RAPE CHARGE

BROCKTON – A Milton man has been arraigned on charges he raped a student on the campus at Bridgewater State University, Plymouth County District Attorney Timothy J. Cruz has announced.

Musa M. Sandi (DOB: 07/17/95) was arraigned in Brockton District Court on one count each of Rape and Witness Intimidation. He pleaded not guilty and bail was set at $5,000 cash with the conditions that he abide by a Harassment Prevention Order and have no contact with the victim.

The female victim contacted Bridgewater State University Police just after midnight Saturday to report that she had been sexually assaulted by Sandi on Wednesday night in an apartment located on the Bridgewater State campus. After an investigation, Bridgewater State University Police arrested Sandi first arrested on October 24. He was released before he was arrested again yesterday after texting the victim after the incident.

Sandi is next scheduled to appear in court on January 13, 2016.

The case is being prosecuted by Assistant District Attorney Sean Killam and was investigated by Bridgewater State University Police.
